Supreme Court - Hafore Judges Strong, McCourt and Edwards.—Care of Manhore Restell — A motion was made that the prisoner be allowed to bail on the conviction, pending the proceedings on the writted error. Messre Brady and Graham appeared on her behalf and Messre Hoffman and McKeon District Attorney) in opposition.—For inster, it was said the case will be argued on its merits in a day or two, and there is no necessity for buil. To meet this it was said the Judges may not immediately give a decision, although the writt of error may be argued, and Madator R. should not be kept in prison. It was stated that the sectence is now running, so that in the event of buil the appeal to the Court, and one that could be made if this is unsuccessful to the Court and one that could be made if this is unsuccessful to the Court of Appeals would probably occupy the whole year of the time for which she was sentenced to imprisonment. The Court's decision will be found under City Items.

Rutes in Equity.—A special term, to take testimony and hear and determine suits on proceedings in equity, will be held on the first day of each general term, to be continued as required. Such terms to be held in Chambers.

The rules of the Supreme Court in equity are to govern

CANADIAN VERMIFUGE.

A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR WORMS.—This melities are said to be attributed to worms. They give rise to nonnerous diefases, and are the more faint because least suspected. Were parents to give this subject more attention, and carefully observe the symptoms which indicate the existence of worms in the howels, THE LIVES OF MANY CHILDERS WOULD NO DOUBT RE SAVED.

WINNESS CANADIAN VERMIFUGE has acquired a reputation far exceeding that of any other medicine of the kind and is daily increasing in popularity. Wherever it is known and used it has been universable and of the kind does, is note prompt on the howelf of the kind does, is note prompt on the howelf of the kind does, is note prompt and prompt of the patient being always improved even when no worms are discovered. Physicians prescribe it, and to use the impuses of one in high standing, who resides in Clevaland, Ohio, condier it "the only articled the kind he ever aw that was so uniform and prompt in expelling worms," it may indeed the will not sea any other.
